Our Time in Portugal by Rabbi Joel Mishkin

As some of you know, Beverly and I had the good fortune to spend nine days in Portugal during the month of July. It was our first time leaving the country since the pandemic began and we were able to travel with two of our closest friends, Rabbi Geoff and Sue Hunting, whom we have known since 1995. To put it succinctly, we had a great time.

However, of all the memorable experiences that we shared overseas, the most valuable and meaningful one was our tour through the village of Alfama, Portugal, the home of the Jewish population during the fifteenth century who became known as the Marranos. These Portuguese Jews openly converted to Christianity in order to preserve their lives in their homes, but secretly continued to practice the Jewish faith. Touring these sites with our private tour guide, Daniel Batos, was eye-opening to say the least. Daniel pointed out hidden marks signifying the place for mezuzot on the doorposts of the homes. Many homes showed off Christian crosses carved into the cement structure to display the population's newborn commitment to Christianity. And he showed us what could have been hanging structures for plants outside of the houses, but were actually used to display Menorahs during Chanukah. Finally, Daniel told us of sausages secretly prepared with chicken and lamb parts rather than pork products. This practice cleverly fooled their Catholic neighbors into thinking that they had changed their dietary practices, while still staying Kosher.

All of this made me think about the religious opportunities that are available to us in this country today. Although we have seen a reemergence of anti-semitism, we also realize just how lucky we are that we can proudly attend our synagogues and practice our traditions and religious faith without fear or anxiety. I hope that those of you who are healthy and able will join me in-person in synagogue for the upcoming services that we will soon observe: Tisha B'Av in our sanctuary joined by members of the Marlboro Jewish Center and Temple Beth Ahm, Selichot services this year at Temple Beth Ahm in Aberdeen, and of course, our vibrant High Holiday services that will once again feature Cantor Zahava Fried. What better way to celebrate your Jewish heritage and faith over the next several months.

From the President's Desk

Phil Rabinowitz

The High Holiday Season is only two months away, and the Beth Ohr family will gather in our beautiful sanctuary to celebrate and pray together. The Yizkor Book letter, Registration forms for High Holiday Seats, and the High Holiday Raffle will soon be mailed to you. Zahava Fried, with her stunning voice and inspiring charisma, will again lead us as our High Holiday Cantor. She will be conducting two Zoom sessions before the High Holidays to teach us new tunes. Please urge your friends and family to attend Rosh Hashonah and Yom Kippur Services at Congregation Beth Ohr for a delightful and spiritual experience.

Our office staff, the new Board of Directors, and Rabbi Mishkin have been planning a full schedule for our Congregants for the Temple fiscal year which started on July 1st, 2024. The best way to show your appreciation for all their efforts on your behalf is to come into the Synagogue more often than last year.

The Gala Journal event, our main fundraiser, will take place on Sunday, October 27th starting at 11:00 AM. We will be celebrating the 10 year Anniversary of our Spiritual leader and friend, Rabbi Joel Mishkin, and honoring members Cheryl & Lee Cadell, and Roberta Karpel, for their outstanding service to the Synagogue.

I thank our Sisterhood for their generous donation to the Synagogue last month, and their on-going financial support.

I am disappointed that no one has stepped up to be our Membership Chair as this important position has remained unfilled for the last two years. If you are interested, contact me to discuss.

Shalom

Phil Rabinowitz

RABBI JOEL MISHKIN
PHILIP RABINOWITZ, PRESIDENT

October 27, 2024 Gala Celebration

Honoring

Rabbi Joel Mishkin

For 10 years Guiding our Congregation

Recognizing

Cheryl & Lee Cadel and Roberta Karpel

For their many years of Service to our Congregation

Dear Fellow Congregant,

This year's Gala Celebration will honor Rabbi Joel Mishkin for his 10 years being our spiritual leader and Cheryl & Lee Cadel and Roberta Karpel for their many years of service to Beth Ohr. This is our major fund raiser of the year and we need all of our congregants to step up with Journal ads either by taking it yourself or by selling ads to surrounding businesses and friends of Beth Ohr and by attending the Gala Celebration.

The funds raised from this event, and particularly the Journal, will help balance our budget and defray any annual deficits that we incur. The membership dues and contributions are greatly appreciated, but we need more. Ads sold to those outside our family bring in much needed funds. Please note that any congregant that sells $250.00 in ads (or $500.00 per couple) can attend the Gala Celebration for FREE. So, this is a big win-win. We get ad revenue, and you can attend the Gala Celebration for Free.

The Gala Celebration will start at 11:00 with a program that will include presentations from government officials and the congregation and will be followed by a gala luncheon.

If you need additional information or any assistance, please reach out to me. An ad form is on the next page and can be photocopied, and ad forms are available at the Synagogue.

We thank you and appreciate your support.

Cordially,

Edward Mendlowitz
Committee Chairman

PROGRAM "BITS"

It's hard to believe the summer is half over, and discussion turns to the holidays and fall programming. We are looking forward to a variety of interesting programs for the year and hope you will join us.

Our first special event will be to welcome a neighbor and scholar from Highland Park and guest speaker, Rabbi Stephanie Dickstein. Join us for Minyan at 9 a.m. on Sunday, September 22, followed by Men's Club breakfast. Come listen to Rabbi Dickstein's discussion on Inscribed in the Book of Life: What are we really praying for on the Days of Awe? and "get in the mood" for the High Holidays.

Do you want to take part in the custom of Genizah (burial of sacred books)? We have gathered boxes and boxes of prayer books and other religious articles that need to be buried. We have some teens who will be willing to schlep, but we need some cars to carry the boxes. Come to the synagogue to join a "caravan" to take the books to our cemetery, then stay to listen to Rabbi Mishkin explain this custom. No lifting required! Meet at the synagogue on Sunday morning, September 8th at 11 a.m.

Fall dates to add to your Sisterhood calendar:

Rabbi Mishkin's classes begin – Monday, October 28 and Wednesday, October 30

Linda Benish's class begins – Thursday, October 31

Sukkah Brunch – Sunday, October 20

Global Day of Jewish Learning – Sunday, November 17

More information to follow.

Have a great rest of the summer and stay cool!

Inspired by and featuring the songs of Elvis Presley®

Elvis's hits roar to life in this mad-cap jukebox musical comedy. Based on Shakespeare's Twelfth Night, the story follows Natalie, a young mechanic with a heart for adventure and Chad, a mysterious, hip-swiveling roustabout who has become stranded in town and decides to shake things up in this small, 1950's town. The production abounds with rock 'n roll, romance and mistaken identities.

Some of the Elvis classics include "Heartbreak Hotel," "Hound Dog," "Jailhouse Rock," and "Don't Be Cruel."
